

New CCW Permit Requests

You must bring this sheet as well as the following items to your CCW interview:

- Ca. driver's license.
- A clear photo copy of your Ca. driver's license.
- Proof of residence i.e. a utility bill, property tax bill, something that shows that you are the resident at the home you claim. It must show your name and address.
- A clear photo copy of your proof of residence.
- The original CCW Firearms Training class certificate, if you have already attended.
- A clear photo copy of the CCW Training class certificate.
- If your Just Cause is based on your self-employed profession or business, you must provide supporting documentation of your business i.e. Professional license, business license, DBA, Seller certificate, etc. A clear photo copy of these documents is acceptable.
- If your Just Cause is based on work you are doing for your employer, you must provide a written statement from your employer verifying the work you do and their consensus that a CCW is warranted. This must be an original document on company letter head and signed.
- Verify that all guns listed on your application are indeed registered to you. (You can't share a gun with a spouse). If not, you must register them through the California Department of Justice, Firearms Division, prior to your appointment.

Verify that you have every requested document for your appointment.

No application will be submitted for review until all documents are in place.
